

80% of the people in this state signed up for the no-call list. What does that tell you? I am disappointed you would listen more to lobbyists for the telemarketers and to their cash than you would to the people who have given you the very strong message that they do not want their privacy invaded in such a manner.